LEV MESHBERG

Meshberg was born in 1933 in Odessa, USSR, and began his formal art education at age thirteen. He graduated with the highest honors from the Odessa Art College in 1958. Meshberg was awarded first prize at annual Ukrainian Art Contests in 1946 and again in 1949 and received a diploma for the best painting at the All-Union Art Exhibition in Moscow in 1963 and 1965.

Following a 1967 exhibition of Soviet art in Germany, Finland and Hungary, Meshberg was named one of the six best young Russian painters.

Prior to his arrival in the USA in 1973, Meshberg had achieved full artistic recognition in the USSR — 57 of his most important paintings were part of the permanent collections of all major Russian museums including the Tretyakov Gallery in Moscow and the Russian Museum in Leningrad.

This retrospective show includes examples of his earlier works painted in the USSR as well as a series of his paintings dedicated to music and some recent oils.
